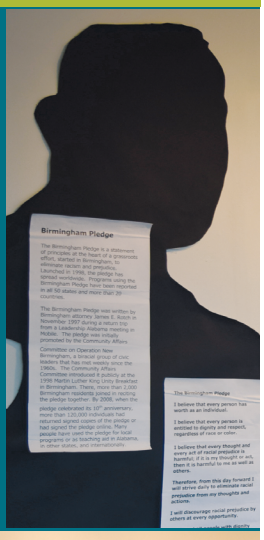
The Arts Council of Princeton presents

MARTIN LUTHER KING DAY



A Free Community Event

Monday, January 16
10am-8pm

Join the Arts Council of Princeton as we celebrate the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Enjoy a day of multidisciplinary performances, interactive workshops, and discussions as they relate to Dr. King's life, teachings and civic engagement.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

10-11:20am
DoroBucci Contemporary African Dance of Princeton University
Workshop and demos

11:30am-12pm
Princeton University Gospel Choir
Live performance

11:30am- 2pm
CHOOSE to Listen, Learn, & Share
Community interviews & conversation regarding race, gender, and diversity

12:30-1:20pm
Just Wing It! of Princeton High School
Interactive improv performance

1:30-2:15pm
CHOOSE to Listen, Learn, & Share
Public Presentation

7-8:30pm
"How to Stay Cool, Calm, and Connected in Turbulent Times"
Adult panel/small group discussion led by
Not in our Town

This event is held in collaboration with the GLSEN Central NJ, Historical Society of Princeton, Kidsbridge, and Christine's Hope.

ARTS COUNCIL OF PRINCETON

Paul Robeson Center for the Arts
102 Witherspoon St, Princeton, NJ | 609.924.8777
artscouncilofprinceton.org

Discover JERSEY ARTS
NEW JERSEY STATE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS