

In Honor of Martin Luther King, Jr.

An Afternoon of Dialogue & Youth Activities

CO-SPONSORED BY

Ewing Senior &
Community Center

Everybody is welcome!

This is a day for students of all ages & families, educators & all school staff, community leaders, seniors & activists.

- Children must be accompanied by an adult
- School/youth groups of eight or more must register in advance

Monday, January 19, 2015

1:00 - 4:00 pm

Kidsbridge Tolerance Museum

(Located at the Ewing Community Center, 999 Lower Ferry Road, Ewing)

FREE Open House at the Kidsbridge Tolerance Museum with crafts & activities for youth

1 pm: Creating Respectful Schools/No Name Calling Week (January 19-23).

Discussion led by Carol Watchler of GLSEN Central NJ. www.glsen.org/centralnj

2 pm: Social Justice and Prejudice Reduction.

Panel discussion featuring local civil rights icon Edith Savage Jennings (a colleague of Martin Luther King, Jr.), Jonette Smart, President of Trenton NAACP and Irene Etkin Goldman, Board Chair of the regional Coalition for Peace Action

3 pm: Trenton's Proud Heritage, Hedgepeth-Williams vs. Trenton Board of Education (1944).

The precedent-setting school integration legal case upon which Brown vs. Board of Ed (1954) was based. Presentation by Thelma Napoleon Smith (Williams' daughter).

THE KIDSBRIDGE TOLERANCE MUSEUM: This interactive youth museum is filled with thought-provoking exhibits where children, teen and educators learn to: recognize and end prejudice, value differences, respect others and be UPstanders instead of bystanders. www.kidsbridgemuseum.org

Questions? Need additional details? Want to volunteer?
Want to register your school/youth group of eight (8) or more?
Contact Lynne at lynne@kidsbridgemuseum.org or 609-581-0239.

"Everybody can be great because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love." ~Dr. Martin Luther King