Kidsbridge Tolerance Center in Ewing, NJ, has fostered an interactive learning environment where youth collaborate with trained facilitators. In small group activities, youth will grow in social-emotional skills including: empathy, empowerment, diversity appreciation, bullying prevention, respect for others and self-regulation.

Kidsbridge now offers a mobile outreach program to bring our small group, interactive learning model to YOUR camp or facility. Our program facilitators lead sessions based on games, movement, role-play, and theater. This program is both research- and evidence-based, and is FUN!

What Adult Leaders and Kid Participants Say:

“Kidsbridge taught me that being different is completely fine. We should care for each other, not stereotype and accept that we are all different and special.
Jenny, age 11”

“I learned that I should stop and think before saying or doing something that could hurt someone.
Caitlin, age 10”

Caitlin, age 10”

“I don’t think our scouts realized they were learning because they were having so much FUN and were so completely engaged. The time just flew by!
Scout Leader”

“When I am mad, I can do the Kidsbridge exercises to reduce stress and release the tension throughout my whole body.
Mason, age 9”

Mindfulness
Kidsbridge educates youth on how to reduce stress in their lives to be an UPstander for themselves.
