

Classical Seek and Find: In the Hall of the Mountain King

Through his music Grieg tells the story of Peer Gynt who runs away to the mountains and is captured by trolls who take him to their King. Listen to it through the link below and see if you can find the 4 main parts of the story brought to life by the instruments.

Watch, Listen, Find!

- ✓ Violin, viola, cello, bass violin players plucking the strings of their instruments to sound like Peer tiptoeing to escape
- ✓ Other instruments joining in and getting louder to sound like more trolls chasing Peer as he tries harder to escape.
- ✓ The whole orchestra playing louder and faster until Peer runs smack into the angry King
- ✓ The sound of Peer trying to escape through 2 locked doors, again through another 2 locked door & finally the King grabbing Peer by his shirt and throwing him out of the castle.

After sharing your Seek and Find answers:

- Use your face muscles, your arms and other parts of your body to show how you think Peer felt when the trolls were chasing him.
- Next show how you think Peer felt when the King tossed him out of the castle.
